CHARGES FALSE SAYS ELLINGSON

Tempe Man, Said to Be Sued for Balm in Love Affair, Returns to Home. Denies Warrant Was Even Served on Him

Mons. Ellingson, Arizona capitalist, whom it was stated was to be sued by Mrs. Anna Russell, San Francisco society woman, to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars as balm for a wounded heart, returned to his home in Tempe yesterday morning and to all queries of the curious public he made a flat denial of any knowledge of the case. Tempeans and other acquaintances of Ellingson in the valley got their first inkling of the charge in a report carried by The Republican on the twentieth of last month. Coast papers gave considerable space to it.

Ellingson says that he has had a fine summer. He visited the first month about Long Beach and Los Angeles and later went on to San Francisco and it was there that he first heard of the charges preferred against him.

Ellingson said yesterday that he has never had more association with Mrs. Russell than as a mere acquaintance. She originally waited table in the Casa Loma hotel dining room here, and after that she spent one or two winters in Tempe. Mrs. Russell set forth in the complaint that Ellingson ardently made love to her, that he made trips to Los Angeles with her and that alleged promises to marry her were never fulfilled. Ellingson states that if a complaint was ever filed, a warrant has not as yet been served on him.

Ellingson is the type of a man that would not compromise for any consideration and as acquaintances have vouched ever, since the case came up, he said yesterday he would spend ten thousand dollars if necessary before he would give up a nickel to stop suit.

CUMMINGS-CASE NUPTIALS

A wedding of interest to Tempe people occurred last evening the contracting parties being Mrs. Sara J. Case and Hugh Cummings. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilbur Fisk of the Methodist church. Mrs. Case's home was prettily decorated for the occasion and a host of friends and relatives attended the wedding afterward to partake of a most enjoyable wedding supper. Mrs. Case has made Tempe her home for a number of years. Originally she lived in New York, and during her stay here has been engaged in teaching school two years near Tempe and one year at Gilbert. Mr. Cummings is a Tempe young man. He was born and raised here and for the last year or so has held an important position with the Ray Consolidated Copper company at Hayden. Today Mr. and Mrs. Cummings will leave for Prescott and after a short stay in that vicinity they will return to this valley and thence on to Hayden where their future home is to be made.

INTERESTING PICTURES

The motion picture film of "The Dimmit County Smugglers" attracted almost a capacity house at the air dome last night. The real action in the picture was a thing that appealed and interested was keen in anticipating the capture of the smugglers and the other exciting events associated with the case. Tonight the air dome is showing four reels, a two-part drama, "A Man's Way," and two single films, "The Padre's Advice" and "The Deceiver."

CRAIG FUNERAL TODAY

The funeral service over the remains of Edward Craig, who was drowned in the Salt river here night before last will be held this afternoon at three o'clock from the family home at the corner of Fourth street and Maple avenue. Rev. Wilbur Fisk of the Methodist church will officiate.

LIGHT CRIMINAL BUT HEAVY CIVIL BOCKET

Indian Liquor Cases Have Almost Ceased Bothering U. S. Agents

A light criminal docket is predicted for the coming regular term of the United States district court, to convene here on October 4.

While the attention of government agents has ceased—almost—to be required by the sale of liquor to Indians, and that sort of offenses have practically disappeared from the court records, this does not explain the unusually emaciated looks of the criminal docket.

Civil suits will be rather numerous at the coming session. The government is particularly interested in three of them, being suits to void patents, two on mineral and one on agricultural land.
